❖ ❖ ❖ Observing the Season of Lent ❖ ❖ ❖
by Dale Flowers

From Ash Wednesday, February 26 until Easter, April 12, we observe 40 days (not counting Sundays) of Lent—a time of reflection and renewal, penitence and prayer, designed to prepare us personally and as a worshipping community for Holy Week and the observance of Christ’s sacrificial death and triumphant resurrection. In the Roman Catholic Church, Lent is a time of preparing for baptism. For those already baptized, it is a time of self-examination and reclaiming our identity with Christ’s death and being raised with him to new life. For this reason we place the baptismal font at the sanctuary entrance as a reminder of God’s gift of forgiveness and cleansing through faith in Jesus. A Lenten devotional, The Sanctuary for Lent 2020 is available at the Connect Center for daily reading and prayer.

Ash Wednesday, February 26 ~ we offer two worship experiences:

7:00 to 8:30 AM is a drop-in time for silent prayer, contemplation, lighting a candle and receiving imposition of ashes or a pastoral prayer.

6:00 PM is a candlelit worship of singing, scripture, prayer, an invitation to confession, the cross, and communion. Childcare will be available.

❖ ❖ ❖ Living Psalms ❖ ❖ ❖
by Emily Stockert

As Christians we believe the Bible is the living word of God...but sometimes the verses feel just like words on a page. Do you ever wish scripture would come alive for you in a new way? A way that is not just informational but formational?

Before I went to seminary, I spent more than 10 years as an actor. I learned tools to connect emotionally and intellectually with words on a page, so that the words could take root in me and spring to life on stage.

When I was called to ministry, I realized that the study methods I utilized as an actor are perfect for engaging scripture at a profound level. I developed a new kind of workshop that utilizes acting techniques alongside traditional Bible study methods to explore God’s word and deepen discipleship.

At FPC, we are excited to offer “Living Psalms” as an Adult Discipleship workshop. On Fri 3/27 (6 - 8:30 pm) and Sat 3/28 (9:30 - noon), we will play with improv acting and Bible study to encounter the Psalms in a lively, dynamic way.

This workshop will dovetail with our music department’s upcoming musical experience of the Psalms on May 17. “Living Psalms” participants will be invited (but not required!) to read a psalm at this musical event.

Space is limited! Sign up online or at the Connect Center today.
